

Competitions Chain-Making, Tongs

There will be something for all levels so join in the fun on Thursday and Friday evenings. While exciting to watch, the contests will be more exciting if you participate, so grab your hammer and plan to show your fellow competitors what's what.

Thursday:

Chain
Making

*three levels - Novice, intermediate and open
There will be a demonstration and a chance to practice that afternoon in the education area.
Be sure to check out the chain making articles in past publications of CBA Magazine starting with the May/June 2019 through Sept/Oct 2019.*

Friday:

Tong
Making

*three levels - Novice, intermediate and open
Participant will be expected to execute and assemble a set of tongs in the time allotted.
For the newer smith, be sure to check out the tong workshop offered in the education area.*
